To: Senator Joseph L. Bruno
LOB 909, Albany, NY 12247

Dear Senator Bruno:

I support the Domestic Workers Bill of Rights. Caring for the children, elderly, and homes of their employers throughout New York State, domestic workers are the backbone of the state's economy. By supporting the Bill of Rights, you are recognizing generations of work that has remained invisible, supporting justice for generations of exploited domestic workers, and recognizing the human right of all to a healthy and safe workplace environment.

Sincerely,

Domestic Workers United
